MEMO ENDORSED

Re: U.S. v. Rodney Robinson 19 CR 846-KPF

Dear Judge Failla:

I represent Rodney Robinson in the above-referenced matter. I am writing to request a two-week adjournment of Mr. Robinson's sentencing, which is currently scheduled for June 23, 2022. This is the second request for an adjournment of Mr. Robinson's sentencing. The government consents to this request.

The reason for the request is that I have still not had an opportunity to review Mr. Robinson's final presentence report with him at the Westchester County Jail. I received the final PSR, which includes significant revisions, in early May. In mid-May, I got COVID and isolated for a week and a half. Since then, the pile-up of deadlines and appearances in other cases has prevented me from finding the time to travel to the jail in Valhalla, NY.

Therefore, I am requesting a two-week adjournment of Mr. Robinson's sentencing to ensure that he can review the final PSR with me and we can discuss his sentencing submission.

Respectfully,

Zachary S. Taylor
